INDEX TO VOLUME 40

Page numbers indicate the month of issue as follows: September, 1-64; October, 65-128; November, 129-192; December, 193-256; January, 257-320; February, 321-384; March, 385-448; April, 449-512; May, 513-576.

AFT, see Teachers

Abbreviations, humorous commentary on American tendency to cleverly abbreviate names of tests, organizations, etc., 178

Ability grouping, allows equal opportunity for all, regardless of race, creed, color, or physical age, 159

"Ability Grouping Is Democratic," by Alice Hall, 159

Acceleration, pupil, 216

Administrators, school: extracurricular activities regulated on basis of educational and other benefits to students, 406; how not to maintain good staff, 504; improve faculty morale through democratic administration, open door policy, staff relations committees, and teachers' organizations, 267; improving the curricula through organized planning by administrators, teachers, and lay persons, 54; legal liability for evaluation reports, 529; myriad of problems and demands made on new principals, 35; role of principals and other administrators of greatly increasing importance to community, 474; tendency to replace department chairmen with division heads to give greater efficiency at less expense, 429

"American History," by Samuel N. Block, 500

Andreasen, Carl L., asks, "Are You a Reluctant Dragon?" 7

Anthropology: integrate into everyday life experience background, knowledge, and practice of educators, 30

Applied sociology: in its infancy in application to problems of education, 30; vital that sociological context be integrated into working experience and knowledge of educators, 30

"Approach to Languages, An," by Martin Gansberg, 422

"Ask the Right Questions!" says Jack R. Fraenkel, 397

"Audio-Visual News," 63, 126, 190, 254, 319, 383, 446, 511

Aurelia, Sister M., on "The Teaching of English Composition," 115

Auto-instructional devices, see Programed instruction

Automated instruction, teaches foreign language by tape recorder, 345

"'Average' Student, The: An Educational Nonentity?" asks Robert S. Southworth, 323

"Back Door Approach to Becoming a Counselor, The," by Beverly B. Swan, 70

"Back to School Night: Informative or Entertaining?" by John W. Myres, 481

Beehler, Elwood F., on "A Voluntary Merit Pay Plan," 23

Belding, Robert E., on "Maturity in Students," 546

Bell, John, on "The One Worst Thing," 396

Bender, Kenneth R., on "The Materials File," 432

Beymer, Lawrence, on "The Pros and Cons of the National Assessment Project," 540

"Beyond the Text: Paperbacks Vitalize Social Studies," by Willis J. Larkin, 47

Blaedel, W. J. (coauthor), on "Our Warped Educational System," 195

Blake, Robert W., asks "How Can We Help Our Teen-Agers?" 496

Blaustein, Marvin L., on "A Guide on Testing for Reluctant Educators," 85

Block, Samuel N., on "American History," 500

Block-time, as opposed to core, 223

Boggs, Arthur W., poem, "Tomorrow and Tomorrow and Tomorrow," 291

"Book Reviews," 59, 120, 184, 247, 314, 379, 439, 507, 563

"Boss, Let's Separate the Models," by Nicholas Psoras, 160

Bossone, Richard M., says, "Now All You Add Is Instant English," 340

Boy, Angelo V. (coauthor), on "School Counseling," 170

Bradley, Arnold L., on "Literature and the Morality Issue," 49

Bradley, R. C., on "The Felonious Teacher," 8

Bray, Kathleen (coauthor), on "The Supervising Teacher," 105

Briscoe, Cecil (coauthor), on "Summer School: A Total Experience in Learning," 464

Brod, Pearl, on "The Middle School: Trend Toward Its Adoption," 331

Bryan, Roy C., on "The Teacher's Image is Stubbornly Stable," 459

Bureaucracy: hierarchical structure of schools, rational collective action, and experimentation and innovation for progress, 3

"Bureaucracy, Rationality, and Educational Innovation," by Harry S. Hartley, 3

Burke, Walter J., on "The Dropout Problem," 44

Burks, Craighill S., on "Student Publications," 276

"Calculus: A Valid High School Course?" by Leverne J. Thelen and Ralph Pippert, 478

Caldwell, S. F., poem, "Requiem: An Apologetic to Carl Sandburg," 336

Cangemi, Joseph, on "Discipline and the Potential Dropout," 225; "Teacher's Influence and the Dropout, A," 390

Cantelope, Leo J., on "Adult Education Is Part of a Continuous Process," 275

"Carnegie Unit, The," by Alvin W. Howard, 135

"Case Against Programed Instruction, The," by Sherman H. Frey, 27

"Catch in the Rye, The," humorous satire on objecting parents, 352

Censorship, should be avoided in selection of plays, 544

"Charles Stewart: Champion of Human Rights," by Edward Logan, 353

Cheating, why and how students cheat, 462

"Cheating in School," by Lynn L. Weldon, 462

Cheeseborough, Welton C. (coauthor), "Saboteurs of Guidance," 287
Chernoff, Marvin, "NOPE: A Way to End Tests," 178
Cigarette smoking, satire on continuation of national habit, 403
Civics, should teach students knowledge of government, 458
Clark, William Ross, editor, "Poems for Study," 125, 253
"Classroom and the Quiet Dimension, The," by John F. Ohles, 67
Cocurriculum, dynamic, educational force if planned properly by department members, students, parents, and community leaders, 26
"Code of Ethics for Educators, A," by Louise L. Tyler, 263
Collective bargaining, in elementary and secondary schools, 515
"Communicative Skills," by Arthur V. Olson, 559
Conference techniques, see Teaching
Consumer education, orphan in school system, 391
"Consumer Education Rides Again," by Edward Damon, 391
"Control and Discipline in School Cafeterias," by Joel T. Santoro, 152
"Controlling Demands of Outside Groups Upon Students' Time and Talents," by Gilbert R. Weldy and Harold E. Wilson, 406
Cooksey, Alan R., on "Let's Departmentalize the Cocurriculum," 26
"Copia Verborum: A Cliché Expert Speaks Out," by Rozanne Knudson, 417
Corcoran, Paul J., on "Thoughts for Teachers," 161
Core: failure to achieve universally accepted definition; growing rejection thereof, 532; pupil-centered, but teacher guided program to create adults in modern, complex, changing world, 223
"Corps, Anybody?" by Walt Trasin, 283
Counseling: and guidance are specialized services vital to education and should be assigned to trained specialists, 287; automation will result in aiding adolescents to choose courses and colleges and find employment, 170; therapeutic relationship, with interweaving of logic and emotion, based on proper psychology and philosophy, 170
Cowper, William, poem, "The Solitude of Alexander Selkirk," 253
"Covering the Book," by William D. Hedges, 554
Creative education, 419
"Criteria for Selecting Plays," by Donald R. McKinley, 544
Culturally deprived children, program aids backward students to prepare for college, 262
Culture: and our educational philosophy interrelated, can prevent dehumanization of man by mechanized society, 387; awareness and appreciation of must be developed in students, 539
"Cultural Malnutrition," by Stephen W. McDermott, 538
"Culture and Social Values in the School Organization," by Rev. Francis A. Lonsway, 387
Curfman, Mary Ellen, on "Hard as a Darnik," 359
Curriculum: concept of liberal arts colleges not distinct or defined, no unique curriculum exists, 226; possibility of tests' aiding in change and improvement thereof, 540; propriety of teaching calculus in high school questioned, 478; see also Core
"Curriculum Improvement," by Carl O. Olson, Jr., 202

Daigon, Arthur, asks, "Poor English Teaching—Whose Fault?" 301
Damon, Edward, on "Consumer Education Rides Again," 391
"Day the Duplicating Machine Broke Down, The," by Robert J. Lumsden, 334
Death of a Salesman, TV study guide, 442
"Debate, The: Valid Teaching Method?" by Kenneth H. Hoover, 232
"Decade of Changes in Junior High Practices, A," by John H. Lounsbury and Harl H. Douglass, 456
Delaney, Arthur A., on "How to Kill a Good Teacher," 504
"Departmental Chairmen or Heads of Divisions?" by R. Baird Shuman, 429
DeRoche, Edward F., on "When Newspapers Replaced Textbooks," 205
"Developmental Approach to Pupil Acceleration, A," by Joseph P. Rice, 216
DeWitt, Gerald, on "Primer for New Principals," 35
de Zafra, Carlos, Jr., on "Producing a School Newspaper," 292
Discipline, harshness stimulates potential dropout to quit, 225
"Discovery in the Urban Sprawl," by Leon Hymovitz, 425
Dixon, Norman R., on "The Search for JHS Teachers," 82
Doherty, Robert E., on "Negotiation," 515
Douglass, Harl R. (coauthor), on "A Decade of Changes in Junior High Practices," 456
Dr. Zhivago, movie review, 566
Drama, how to select plays for high school production, 544
"Dropout Problem, The," by Walter J. Burke, 44
Dropouts: can be prevented through proper vocational guidance and education, 412; harsh discipline stimulates potential dropout to quit, 225; Negro dropouts increased by unfair, incomplete textbooks, 38; not all students who withdraw from school are dropouts, 44; research should be honest, analytical, objective, 44; teacher interest can prevent, 7; see also Non-academic-general students
Duff, John Carr, on "Hughes Mearns," 419
Dutton, John L., on "Teach Them to Live," 311

Economic Opportunity Act of 1964: primary focus on education, supplemented by counseling, supporting services, and instruction; emphasis on potential dropout types, 155
"Economics Taught With Meaning," by Howard L. King, 140
Educational change, slowness due to bureaucracy and teacher resistance, 551
"Educational Television," by Jack L. Nelson and Thomas E. Linton, 486
"Emerging Craft of the Teaching Profession, The," by William C. Jordan, 236
English composition, see Teaching
English teaching, see Teaching
Enstrom, E. A., on "Handwriting: The Neglect of a Needed Skill," 308
Erwine, Sheldon, on "Modular Scheduling," 524
"Evaluator's Dilemma, An," by Charles M. Wetterer, 529

"Events and Opinions," 221
Extracurricular activities, should not be limited only to honor students, 42; see also Administrators, school

Faculty meetings: how to shorten length of, 90; disseminate information and aid morale, 475
"Faculty Morale Rests With Administrators," by Fred Von Burg, 267
"Felonious Teacher, The," by R. C. Bradley, 8
Fensch, Edwin A., on "Tone Down the Bell Curve," 469
Flannigan, Michael C., on "Modernizing English Instruction," 167
Fletcher, Paul F., on "A Question of Taste," 364
Forehand, Garlie A., on "Problems of Measuring Response to Literature," 369
"Foreign Language Learning and the Teaching Machine," by Theodore Mueller, 345
Foreign languages, learned through programing and tape recorder at home, 345
Fraenkel, Jack R., on "Ask the Right Questions!" 397
Fredrickson, Roald H. (coauthor), on "Teachers View Test Results," 357
Freedom and education, as they pertain to politics, economics, and vocational problems, 451
Frerichs, Allen H., on "The Incomplete Graduate," 412
Frey, Sherman H., on "The Case Against Programed Instruction," 27
Fringe benefits, see Teachers, Collective bargaining
Frye, Ella M., poem, "Preparedness," 558

Gamsky, N. R. (coauthor), on "Our Warped Educational System," 195
Gansberg, Martin, on "An Approach to Languages," 422
Gielgud's "Ages of Man," TV study guide, 317
"Glimpse Into a Teen-Age Mind, A," by Mary Reese, 149
Gonis, Sophia N., on "Negro Influence on the New Educational Design," 108
Gordon, Ted, editor of "Tricks of the Trade," 86, 344
Grading: by student's selection of seat in classroom, 73; no satisfactory system as yet evolved, 469
Green, Joseph, editor of "Events and Opinions," 221
Group counseling, personal experiences of student participant, 401
Guidance, see Counseling
"Guide to Helping Pupils with Learning Problems, A," by Wayne Otto, 91

Hain, John R., on "Reality and Teaching the Social Studies," 166
Hall, Alice, on "Ability Grouping Is Democratic," 359
Handwriting, setting standards of excellence for, 308
"Handwriting: The Neglect of a Needed Skill," by E. A. Enstrom, 308
Hanrahan, Robert P., on "Emphasize Classroom Instruction," 455
"Hard as a Darnik," by Mary Ellen Curfman, 359
Hartley, Harry J., on "Bureaucracy, Rationality, and Educational Innovation," 3
Hartz, Frederic R., "Planning School Libraries for Independent Study," 144
Hayman, Dick, poem, "Ow, Voyager!" 173, poem, "Words for the Whys," 266
Hedges, William D., on "Covering the Book," 554
Held, George, on "The Ideals of Holden Caulfield," 295
Heller, Melvin P., on "School Activities Need an Open Door Policy," 42
Henderson, Be ce, on "Painless Research Themes—Almost," 282
Herman, Jerry J. (coauthor), on "Operation Improvement," 54
Herman, Lester R. (coauthor), on "Conference Techniques," 239
Hernandez, David E., on "Politics and Education," 174
High, Paul B., on "The Supervisory Role of the Department Head," 213
High school marching bands, 151
Hill, Norman J., on "The Key to Effective Teaching," 131
Hiner, Ray, Jr., on "Old Ways Die Hard," 551
History, need knowledge of social sciences, psychology, sociology to understand, 500
Hood, Charles E., on "Teaching as a Career," 228
Hoover, Kenneth H., on "The Debate: Valid Teaching Method?" 232
"How to Kill a Good Teacher," 504
Howard, Alvin W., says "Salaries Are Not Enough," 525; on "The Carnegie Unit," 135
"How Can We Help Our Teen-Agers?" by Robert W. Blake, 496
Hudson, Rozanne, on "Copia Verborum: A Cliché Expert Speaks Out," 417
"Hughes Mearns," by John Carr Duff, 419
Human relations: in culturally diverse society, man must learn to live and work together in harmony and mutual respect, 353
"Humanities Course, A," by Cecilia F. McGinnis and William Kraus, 180
"Humanities Today," 62, 124, 188, 251, 317, 382, 442, 509, 566
Humphries, Rolfe, poem, "Polo Grounds," 125
Hymovitz, Leon, on "Discovery in the Urban Sprawl," 425

"Ideals of Holden Caulfield, The," by George Held, 295
Improvement of teaching salaries, 410
"Improving Staff Communications," by John F. McGrew, 475
"Incentive to Improve," by Tom Pasqua, 483
Integration, see Negroes
Intercultural development, through exchange students, 28
International schooling, teaching bilingualism, 422

Jennings, Wayne, asks, "What Is a Core Program?" 223
Johnson, Harold T. (coauthor), on "Conference Techniques," 239
Johnson, William H., on "Preparing to Teach," 206
Jordan, William C., on "The Emerging Craft of the Teaching Profession," 236
Journalism, high school: can be creative, demanding, satisfying, 292; contests stimulate excellence, 483
Junior high school, survey after decade, 456
Junior high teachers: acceptance of either elementary or secondary certificate should be universal,

77; curriculum and instruction must be oriented to early adolescent, 74; lack of educational program in universities forces staffing of schools with teachers trained for elementary or senior high schools, 82; must have special certificate requirements, 74; need psychological training and insight, 74; role and objectives must be evaluated, 74; search for stimulates pre-service and in-service education, 82; training should emphasize teaching of reading and study skills, student teaching, and commitment to teaching young adolescents, 77
"Just Color Me Blue," by Harry M. Lafferty, 50

Kelly, Eugene T., on "Unsupervised Study: Proceed with Caution," 100
Kerr, Walter, on "Take Another Puff!" 403
"Key to Effective Teaching, The," by Norman J. Hill, 131
King, Howard L., on "Economics Taught With Meaning," 140
Knapp, Dale L. (coauthor), on "The Supervising Teacher," 105
Krakker, Valeria, on "The Wonderland School Faculty Meeting," 90
Kraus, William (coauthor), on "A Humanities Course," 180

Lafferty, Harry M., says "Just Color Me Blue," 50
Lagios, Socrates A., on "Poetry and Counseling," 528
Larkin, Willis J., on "Beyond the Text," 47
Leipold, L. Edmond, on "Teachers in the Courts," 280
Levine, Daniel U., "On the Popular Art of Teacher Baiting," 298
"Liberal Arts: Curriculum or Spirit?" by Starr Miller, 226
Libraries, unprepared for pupil population explosion of '60's and '70's, 144
Linguistic geography, teaches us dialects of our region and cultural levels of American speech, 359
Linton, Thomas E. (coauthor), on "The School That Cared," 87; (coauthor), on "Educational Television," 486
Literary criticism, modern approach to, 364
Literary responses, measurement thereof, 369
"Lockstep Teaching," by John W. Renner, 162
Logan, Edgar, on "Charles Stewart; Champion of Human Rights," 353
Lonsway, Rev. Francis A., on "Culture and Social Values in the School Organization," 387
Lounsbury, John H. (coauthor) on "A Decade of Junior High Practices," 456
Lumsden, Robert J., on "The Day the Duplicating Machine Broke Down," 334

McDermott, Stephen W., on "Cultural Malnutrition," 538
McGinnis, Cecelia F. (coauthor), on "A Humanities Course," 180
McGrew, John F., on "Improving Staff Communications," 475
McKinley, Donald R., on "Criteria for Selecting Plays," 544
Machines, satire on paralysis of educational system when machines break down, 334
Madon, Constant A., on "The Middle School: Its Philosophy and Purpose," 329
Makarian, Robert (coauthor), on "School Population and the Problems of the Principal," 97
Marchie, Howard E. (coauthor), on "Teachers View Test Results," 357
Mason, Louis D., poem, "Administration of Truth," 99; poem, "My Father Is a Teacher," 246
"Materials File, The," by Kenneth R. Bender, 432
"Maturity in Students," by Robert E. Belding, 546
Mauer, Adah, on "Physical Education: Model 'T' in the Space Age," 210
Merit pay, voluntary system of classroom evaluation, academic work, professional organizations, and community service as basis for higher pay, 23
Michaels, Herbert, on "Prescription: Reading in Large Doses," 337
Middle school: experimental concept designed to fit needs of early adolescent, 329; gives 6th-7th graders special attention, teachers, and programs, 331; and overlapping teaching certificates, 77
"Middle School, The: Its Philosophy and Purpose," by Constant A. Madon, 329
"Middle School, The: Trend Toward Its Adoption," by Pearl Brod, 331
Millard, Thomas L., on "The Negro in America," 38
Miller, Starr, on "Liberal Arts: Curriculum or Spirit?" 226
Minority groups, aid culturally deprived juvenile delinquents through joint efforts of school and community, 87
"Modernizing English Instruction," by Michael C. Flannigan, 167
Mollenkof, Leonard A., on "Neglect or Action for the Non-College Bound?" 413
Moroski, Henry J. (coauthor), on "Summer School: A Total Experience in Learning," 464
Mueller, Theodore, on "Foreign Language Learning and the Teaching Machine," 345
Muro, James J., on "Programed Instruction: A Positive Point of View," 493
Myres, John W., on "Back to School Night: Informative or Entertaining?" 481

NEA, see Teachers
"Neglect or Action for the Non-College Bound?" by Leonard A. Mollenkof, 413
"Negotiation," by Robert E. Doherty, 515
"Negro in America, The," by Thomas L. Millard, 38
"Negro Influence on the New Educational Design," by Sophia N. Gonis, 108
Negroes: compensatory education in deprived communities, 108; culturally deprived, minority group, disadvantaged pupils can be aided by creative teachers who understand cultural variables involved in self-concept theory, 242; in automated society, lack of education and skills will lower social and economic opportunities of all groups, 38; influence of, on education and curriculum, and by new teaching materials, 108; integration requires equal education, recognition of Negro's place in history, 38; see also Minority groups, Urban education
Nelson, Jack L. (coauthor), on "Educational Television," 486
Neumeier, Edward J., on "School PR Comes of Age," 472
"New Curriculum for Teen-Agers," by Solomon Simonson, 13
New principals, must be all things to all people, 35
"Newspaper Is the School's Underdog Activity, The," by L. E. Wesche, 20

Newspapers, see Journalism, high school
Non-academic-general students: emphasis placed on social adjustment, vocational development, and preparation for citizenship, 413; program to help dropouts and potential dropouts, 413
"NOPE: A Way to End Tests," by Marvin Chernoff, 178
"Now All You Add Is Instant English," by Richard M. Bossone, 340

Ohles, John F., on "The Classroom and the Quiet Dimension," 67
Ohlsen, Linda, on "A Student's Perception of Group Counseling," 401
"Old Ways Die Hard," by Ray Hiner, Jr., 551
Olson, Arthur V., on "Why Should We Teach Reading?" 94; on "Communicative Skills," 559
Olson, Carl O., Jr., on "Curriculum Improvement," 202
Olson, R. F., on "The Catch in the Rye," 352
"On the Popular Art of Teacher Baiting," by Daniel U. Levine, 298
"Operation Improvement," by Jerry J. Herman and Ian M. Smith, 54
Osibov, Henry, asks "Power or Persuasion: Which Approach to Improve Salaries?" 410
Otto, Wayne, on "A Guide to Helping Pupils with Learning Problems," 91
"Our Warped Educational System," by W. J. Blaedel and N. R. Gamsky, 195
Overton, Harvey, on "The Rise and Fall of the Core Curriculum," 532

Paperbacks, social studies should use as textbooks, secondary works, biographies, documentation, 47
Parents, see Public relations
Pasqua, Tom, on "Incentive to Improve," 483
Peace Corps, humorous commentary on it and kindred government projects, 283
Phillips, Jack, "A C-Core Program Pays Off," 262
"Physical Education: Model 'T' in the Space Age," by Adah Mauer, 210
Pine, Gerald J. (coauthor), "School Counseling," 170
"Pioneer Palace, The," by James M. Thrasher, 490
Pippert, Ralph (coauthor), on "Calculus: A Valid High School Course?" 478
"Planning School Libraries for Independent Study," by Frederic R. Hartz, 144
Politics, has decisive effect on quality public education, requires participation of general public, 174
"Politics and Education," by David E. Hernandez, 174
Polos, Nicholas C., on "The Tutorial Adapted for the High School," 404
"Poor English Teaching—Whose Fault?" by Arthur Daigon, 301
"Power or Persuasion: Which Approach to Improve Salaries?" by Henry Osibov, 410
"Preparing Junior High Teachers," by Gordon F. Vars, 77
"Preparing to Teach," by William H. Johnson, 206
"Prescription: Reading in Large Doses," by Herbert Michaels, 337
"Primer for New Principals," by Gerald DeWitt, 35
"Problems of Measuring Response to Literature," by Garlie A. Forehand, 369
"Producing a School Newspaper," by Carlos de Zafra, Jr., 292
Programed instruction: acceptance limited, program developers must correct weaknesses to gain universal use, 27; learning may get away from rigidity of group instruction and become individual experience, encouraging originality, individuality, initiative, and innovation, 67; teaching aid, as effective as the programer and teacher who use it, 493
Professional status for education, requires code of ethics, comparable to other professions, i.e., law, medicine, 263
"Programed Instruction: A Positive Point of View," by James J. Muro, 493
"Pros and Cons of the National Assessment Project, The," by Lawrence Beymer, 540
Psoras, Nicholas, says "Boss, Let's Separate the Models," 160
Public image, see Teachers
Public relations: "Back-to-School Night" or open house on increase, 481; improvement of teaching image, 410; keeping community informed re school activities and aspirations, 472
Punke, Harold H., on "Universals: Freedom and Education," 451

Quantitative education, accentuated by Carnegie Unit, as against present-day qualitative education, 135
"Question of Taste, A," by Paul F. Fletcher, 364

Reading: carefully selected program of outside reading advocated, with success, 337; develop skill in spiral effect, 94; skill should be taught on all levels below college, 94; teach students to read before exploring space, 424
Reed, Max, on "Junior High School Marching Bands? Yes!" 151
Reese, Mary, on "A Glimpse Into a Teen-Age Mind," 149
Renner, John W., on "Lockstep Teaching," 162
Repetition, guided: effective and necessary part of teaching and learning, 195; fixed time system outdated, ineffective, and psychologically unsound, 195; nongraded system rejects repetition, 195; variable time system best introduced in new primary schools, 195
Research: living, growing materials file a stimulant to better teaching, 432
Rice, Joseph P., on "A Developmental Approach to Pupil Acceleration," 216
"Rise and Fall of the Core Curriculum, The," by Harvey Overton, 532
Rosenberg, Max, on "Outcomes in Research on School Administrators," 474

"Saboteurs of Guidance," by Clemmont E. Vontress and Welton C. Cheeseborough, 287
"Salaries Are Not Enough," by Alvin W. Howard, 525
Santoro, Joel T., on "Control and Discipline in School Cafeterias," 152
Savitzky, Charles, on "WTP and EOA," 155
Schilson, Donald L., on "School Self Study," 259
Schley, Robert A., on "Classroom Testing as a Learning-Centered Activity," 235
"School Activities Need an Open Door Policy," by Melvin P. Heller, 42
School cafeterias, basic discipline and courtesy in must be enforced by teachers, 152

"School Counseling," by Angelo V. Boy and Gerald J. Pine, 170
School policy, trend towards teachers and administrators jointly reaching decisions, 515
"School Population and the Problems of the Principal," by Leighton B. Wilklow and Robert Markarian, 97
"School PR Comes of Age," by Edward J. Neumeier, 472
"School Self Study," by Donald L. Schilson, 259
School size: administrative problems, 97; tendency of medium-sized schools to have more important problems than large and small schools, 97; recruitment and retention of teachers, 97
Science vs. humanities: immediate human problems must be solved or advances of science will become irrelevant, 295
"Search for JHS Teachers, The," by Norman R. Dixon, 82
Self anaylsis, critical: will improve curriculum, methodology, administration, research, morale, and pupil-teacher-parent relationships, 259
"Self-Concept Theory," by Eldon E. Snyder, 242
Shuman, R. Baird, on "Departmental Chairmen or Heads of Divisions?" 429
Siegert, Wilmer H., on "Weather Wise," 435
Simonson, Solomon, on "A New Curriculum for Teen-Agers," 13
Sirard, Robert J., on "Alleviate Governmental Ignorance," 458
Slow learners: nine principles to help, 91; reverse process by insuring success, building motivation, and adding to store of success experiences, 91
Smith, Hayden R., asks "Teacher—Hast Thou Any Ham in Thee?" 53
Smith, Ian M. (coauthor) on "Operation Improvement," 54
Snyder, Eldon E., "Self-Concept Theory," 242
"Sociology: A Missing Ingredient in the Educational Process," by Carl Weinberg, 30
Southworth, Robert S., on "The 'Average' Student: An Educational Nonentity?" 323
Soviet education, Pioneer Palaces, Russia's secondary educational enterprise, 490
Sports activities, for girls, should be optional, 210
Stivers, Eugene H. (coauthor), on "The School That Cared," 87
"Student Publications," by Craighill S. Burks, 276
Student publications: newspapers must have trained, experienced, and interested advisers, 21; primarily part of an overall educative experience, 276
"Student's Perception of Group Counseling, A," by Linda Ohlsen, 401
Student teacher programs: require adequate financing, plus concerted effort to select, prepare, and reward supervising teachers, 105; still considered most important aspect of teacher education, 206
Students, comparison of British and European with American, differences in development of responsibility, 546
Study: average high school student wants supervision, guidance, direction, and interested teaching, 100; supervised vs. unsupervised, 100; trend toward independent on the increase, 100
Summer school, integration with regular school year and totzl educational effort, 464
"Summer School: A Total Experience in Learning," by Henry J. Moroski and Cecil Briscoe, 464
"Supervising Teacher, The," by Dale L. Knapp and Kathleen Bray, 105
Supervision, see Study, Student teacher programs
"Supervisory Role of the Department Head, The," by Paul B. High, 213
Swan, Beverly B., on "The Back Door Approach to Becoming a Counselor," 70

"Teach Them To Live," by John L. Dutton, 311
Teachers: AFT vs. NEA, compete for teachers' allegiance, 515; development of good teachers responsibility of department head, 213; dynamic leadership needed to establish teacher education program, not created by colleges of education or universities, 206; elimination of teacher certification exams reduces public faith in teachers, 206; emphasis on broad general education, leaves responsibility for quality of teacher education with teacher college educationists, 206; education, 206; English teachers—should they teach morality and citizenship through literature, 49; image held by students is stubbornly stable, 459; individuality must be preserved and they must be encouraged to periodically update their skills and provide release time for basic curriculum improvement, 202; TV as an occupational threat to, 486; learning use of new A-V media, practice teaching, independent study, introspection, and experimentation all improve curriculum, 202; must be part actor to communicate with students, 53; public image on low or nonexistent level, 50; released time for, to attend reading workshops, mathematics courses, etc., 54; salaries supplemented by fringe benefits, 525; should stimulate and manipulate environment to aid pupils to achieve respect for people, for learning, and for school, 455; status may change through advent of television teaching, 486; weigh pros and cons of teaching as career, 228; work with administrators and lay persons to improve curriculum, teaching, and learning processes, 54
"Teacher's Image Is Stubbornly Stable, The," by Roy C. Bryan, 459
"Teachers in the Courts," by L. Edmond Leipold, 280
"Teachers View Test Results," by Ronald H. Fredrickson and Howard E. Marchie, 357
Teaching: aim is to increase independence of student, 559; assembly line approach to education, instruction only on group level in too highly organized manner frustrates individuality, originality, and innovation, 67; average and slow students generally slighted by present teaching methods—best teaching achieves maximum levels for bright, average, and slow students, 323; becomes more effective when encourages students to seek honest answers to questions, 131; by active student participation, 140; child's behavior guided by his self image, teachers must understand psychology of underprivileged children, 242; classroom debate, used for instructional purposes, is controversial teaching method, 232; classroom testing helps develop self-learning behavior and communication skills, 235; college and university English departments don't train English majors to teach grammar properly, mainly concerned with literature, 340; covering textbook rigidly an obsolete method, 554; English composition, 115; poor English teaching caused by demanding universal secondary education but applying English prep school standards to judge the results, 301; profession becoming skilled craft, solidly agreed on democratic society based on individual differences, 236; Project English Demonstration Center set up, 167; purpose of education is to develop ability to think, requiring new teacher education programs and materials, 162; requires setting good example for students, stimulating sense of discovery, and motivating students for further learning, 311; requires teacher to understand himself and life about him, 376; return to tutorial system aids in growth and maturity, 404; school, home, teachers, and parents may use the conference technique to coordinate efforts to aid in student's development, 239; specialists in English education needed to train teachers in nature and use of English language, 340; stimulates students to discuss, think about, and ask questions on the current issues of the day, 311; stimulation of student interest one aspect of good teaching, 396; to be effective must stimulate students to ask appropriate questions, 397; with teaching machines, teaching role is that of informant, 345

"Teaching as a Career," by Charles E. Hood, 228
Teaching machines: see Automated instruction
Teaching standards: screening of teachers recommended, to bar those who have committed felonies and serious malpractices, 8
Team teaching: dangers of resplintering curriculum should be avoided, 78; new aid to help develop skill of teachers enhances skill of profession, 236; new method team study, with joining of classes and teachers, 7; see also Teachers
Teen-agers: aid in adjusting to complex, rapidly changing society, 496; applied logic, rhetoric, ethics must be basis of curriculum for, 13; conformity, insecurity, and apathy are the real problems, 13; improvement in quality of rock 'n' roll music listened to by teen-agers denied, 189; listen to best in all kinds of music, 188; mind of average teen-ager reveals myriad of fascinating facets, 149; old program of academic "quintity," elective system, and the release of tension through extracurricular activities is obsolete, 13
Television: ways to combat aimless watching, 538
Television teachers: see Teachers
Testing: humorous commentary on tests and testing, 178; testing guide for reluctant educators, 85; need for testing system to be re-evaluated and revised, 357; to evaluate educational progress and achievement of students, 540
Textbooks: history textbooks unfair to Negro, slow down integration, increase dropouts, 38; newspapers successfully replace textbooks in reading, science, English, social studies, 205; paperbacks invaluable, as textbooks and to complement and augment, 47; to be used as basis of reference in teaching and used individualistically by teacher, 554
Thelen, Leverne J. (coauthor), on "Calculus: A Valid High School Course?" 478
Thrasher, James M., on "The Pioneer Palace," 490
Tockman, Joe M., poem, "The Great Sobriety," 424
Toepfer, Jr., Conrad F., on "Who Should Teach in Junior High?" 74
"Tone Down the Bell Curve," by Edwin A. Fensch, 469
Trasin, Walt, on "Corps, Anybody?" 283
"Tricks of the Trade," 86, 344
"Tutorial Adapted for the High School, The," by Nicholas C. Polos, 404
Tyler, Louise L., on "A Code of Ethics for Educators," 263

"Universals: Freedom and Education," by Harold H. Punke, 451
"Unsupervised Study: Proceed with Caution," by Eugene T. Kelly, 100
Urban education: necessity for in service training of teachers should have high priority, 298

Vars, Gordon F., on "Preparing Junior High Teachers," 77
Vincent, Sister Mary, asks, "Trust These Pied Pipers?" 29
Vocabulary development, a skill requiring interest and effort, 559
Vocational education: students entitled to vocational guidance and education, 412
"Voluntary Merit Pay Plan, A," by Elwood F. Beehler, 23
Von Burg, Fred, says "Faculty Morale Rests With Administrators," 267
Vontress, Clemmont E. (coauthor), "Saboteurs of Guidance," 287

"WTP and EOA," by Charles Savitzky, 155
Walter, Nina Willis, poem, "Paradox," 238
Warren, Frances (coauthor), on "A Solution for the Study Hall-Library Conflict," 400
Weather: learning and teaching strongly affected by changes, 435
"Weather Wise," by Wilmer H. Siegert, 435
Weinberg, Carl, on "Sociology: A Missing Ingredient in the Educational Process," 30
Weldon, Lynn L., on "Cheating in School," 462
Weldy, Gilbert R. (coauthor), on "Controlling Demands of Outside Groups Upon Students' Time and Talents," 406
Wesche, L. E., on "The Newspaper is the School's Underdog Activity," 20
Wetterer, Charles M., on "An Evaluator's Dilemma," 529
"What Is a Core Program?" by Wayne Jennings, 223
"Who Should Teach in Junior High?" by Conrad F. Toepfer, Jr., 74
"Why Should We Teach Reading?" by Arthur V. Olson, 94
Wilklow, Leighton B. (coauthor), on "School Population and the Problems of the Principal," 97
Willey, Richard L., on "Take Your Seat and Take Your Mark," 73
"William Rainey Harper: A Giant Among Educators," by Glenn D. Williams, 270
Williams, F. Neil, on "Making the Most of Our Foreign Students," 428
Williams, Glenn D., on "William Rainey Harper: A Giant Among Educators," 270
Williams, Maurice C., on "Words to Teach By," 376
Willis, Charles L., says, "Give Meaning to Meaningful Meetings," 279
Wilson, Harold E. (coauthor), on "Controlling Demands of Outside Groups Upon Students' Time and Talents," 406
Woods, Susan (coauthor), on "A Solution for the Study Hall-Library Conflict," 400
Woolf, Leonard, poem, "Groundlings," 43
"Words to Teach By," by Maurice C. Williams, 376